Note. p. 104, line 17.

William Shent was a barber at the upper corner of Briggate and Duncan Street. On Sunday, 19th July, 1761 (the date of Mrs. Shent's burial), John Wesley recorded in his "Journal" that—after preaching at Birstal at Eight and at One o'clock—"I rode thence to Leeds, in order to preach a funeral sermon for Mary Shent, who, after many severe conflicts, died in great peace. It was one of the largest congregations which has been seen at Leeds; to whom I spoke very plain from part of the gospel for the day, 'Give an account of thy stewardship, for thou mayest be no longer steward.'"

(1) The second son of the Rev. Christopher Atkinson, Rector of Thorp Arch, was born at Ledsham 28 Sep., 1741, educated at St. Peter's College, Cambridge, B.A. 1763. Lecturer at the Leeds Parish Church, minister and founder of St. Paul's Church, Leeds. He was also Vicar of Kippax. It was owing to his exertions that Sunday schools were established in Leeds. In the Thoresby Society's Library are two volumes of his sermons, containing a memoir of his life and character, and his portrait, engraved from a painting by J. Russell, R.A. He died 6 Feb., 1811, aged 70 years, and was buried at St. Paul's Church, 12 Feb., 1811.
